Readings: 34th Sunday in Ordinary Time (A)

1 st Reading	2 nd Reading	Gospel
Ezekiel 34: 11-12, 15-17	1 Corinthians 15: 20-26, 28	Matthew 25: 31-46

THE KING IN THE BREADLINE

Each reading [for Christ the King] uses images of shepherds and shepherding.... In ancient Israel and throughout the Near East, the shepherd was a metaphor for [the nurturing and power of] kingship.... Psalm 23 ["The Lord is my Shepherd..."] reminds us that God accompanies the dispossessed.... [Later,] Ezekiel, prophet to Jewish refugees in Babylonia, depicts God as a shepherd gathering the scattered sheep: the seeker of strays, the injured, the sick. God also knows how to shepherd the sleek and strong [and refers] to judgment between the rams and goats.

Matthew reminds us that if we create conditions of economic and political injustice, our treatment of the victims will determine how Jesus treats us on the day of decision. The Gospels do not get much clearer in delineating the kind of relationships we are called to have, whether they are personal, political, or economic.... The closest we can come to a transformative, face-to-face encounter with Jesus is to be fully present to the poor and marginalized.... Plan ahead [for] the Last Judgement... re-evaluate modern economic assumptions.... Gospel insights will save us; investing in them is worth the risk.

Matthew's Last Judgment scene [is the background for one of] Fritz Eichenberg's many woodcuts in the Catholic Worker newspaper: "The Christ of the Breadline..." (above). In what lines of suffering humanity would Eichenberg place Jesus today?

Please make cheques payable to the Parish, earmarked to “Sharing God’s Gifts” – and print your name and envelope number clearly on the Sharing God’s Gifts envelope.

St Ignatius Statement for this week: To our regular Sunday collection you gave in support of our parish, school, and church: $12,254. To Sharing God’s Gifts you gave $2,049. To the Poor Box & Agape you gave $90. Thank you for your generosity.

Women at the Heart of Peace: Development & Peace (D&P) / Caritas Canada Education Campaign. Sign the Action Card at the back of the church today or go to devp.org/act

In June 2017, the Minister of International Development and La Francophonie presented Canada’s new International Assistance Policy, under which Canada is committed to ensuring that women and girls have the opportunity to take active roles in establishing and maintaining peace in their communities. Despite its remarks in support of women and peace, the government did not increase the international aid budget and chose instead to increase the military budget by 70% over 10 years. Together, let’s call on the Canadian government to give women the resources they need to be at the heart of peace.

“Just as you did it to one of the least of these brothers and sisters of mine, you did it to me.” (Matt 25)
