Refugee

We think of him as safe beneath the steeple,
 Or cosy in a crib beside the font,
 But he is with a million displaced people
 On the long road of weariness and want.
 For even as we sing our final carol
 His family is up and on that road,
 Fleeing the wrath of someone else's quarrel,
 Glancing behind and shouldering their load.
 Whilst Herod rages still from his dark tower,
 Christ clings to Mary, fingers tightly curled,
 The lambs are slaughtered by the men of power,
 And death squads spread their curse across the world.
 But every Herod dies, and comes alone
 To stand before the Lamb upon the throne.

A warm thank-you to all who helped make our Advent and Christmas Liturgies beautiful and meaningful: to those who donated poinsettias, set up the crèche, or decorated the sanctuary and church; to the donor of the new crèche; to the Lectors, Eucharistic Ministers, altar servers, choirs, ushers, and greeters; and to everyone else who participated in any way. Finally, thanks to everyone who attended. Thanks also to all who contributed to the four Advent collections.
