The Magi

It might have been just someone else's story;
Some chosen people get a special king,
We leave them to their own peculiar glory,
We don't belong, it doesn't mean a thing.
But when these three arrive they bring us with them,
Gentiles like us, their wisdom might be ours;
A steady step that finds an inner rhythm,
A pilgrim's eye that sees beyond the stars.

They did not know his name but still they sought him,
They came from elsewhere but still they found;
In palaces, found those who sold and bought him,
But in the filthy stable, hallowed ground.
Their courage gives our questing hearts a voice
To seek, to find, to worship, to rejoice.

The Community of St Ignatius

Adoration of the Magi (Andrea Mantegna, ca1500)

6 January 2019
Epiphany

6 January 2019 – Epiphany (C)

Thank You. All the staff, Fr Joe, and I thank you for the many Christmas and New Year’s greetings, your cards and your generous gifts! All candy, cookies, etc., are still being consumed happily and much has been shared. Monetary gifts, too, have been shared, some welcomed by the Jesuit community and others added to a couple of my favourite parish projects. May all of you be blessed abundantly in this New Year!

-- R. Frank Obrigewitsch, sj
