PARABLE OF THE DINNER PARTY

“When you are invited, go and sit down at the lowest place” – Luke 14

She entered the party like a caped queen her heels lifting herself up to thinner air almost to where she wanted to be she saw the table spread with boutique finery charcuterie and artisanal cheeses and duck liver paté red and white and bubbling wine for every course she approached the gathering and saw on the far end the out-of-fashioned, the rough handed and wrong spoken the servants and migrants who picked the butter lettuce on the near end she saw the well-labeled suits handbags with leather and metal clasps that look of confidence in the eyes of the highly educated she saw one chair near her with those of her kind she sat and mingled and sipped wine and laughed controllably and knew which for to use for the appetizer the host came and thanked her for taking the seat at this end and assured her warm-voiced that someday, she too, could join him at the other
