You Are Late

As the bridegroom was delayed, all of them became drowsy and slept. (Matt 25)

And you are late as we wait for the dateless day
the time of no more car crashes or heroin overdoses
the futility of armaments and warlords revealed
the unscheduled happening on the skyline beyond a joyous enigma warbled by shofar, drum, and didgeridoo
a jubilee table overflowing with peppered roast and pie
every person has a dining chair and every chair a person.

So we wonder, in your holy lateness that feels stale now as our wicking lamps burn dry and our oil flasks empty like our fading hope and trust in the thinness of words did we miss something or was there nothing to miss did we blink in the wind as you hurriedly came and went did you forget us or just move on to other universes and other promises easier to keep than healing this one or is it that we blithely forgot what we were waiting for and it is here touching like sunlight fingers and nearby as Mars round and full of presence like pregnant women waxing sublime like Grand Canyon silence filling the ear and mind, is it you yourself and your permeation of every quantum thing so all we do now in the felt deterrent that is not quite that is welcome you slowly like this day's light one photon after the other.

32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

8 November 2020 – 32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time – (A)

The physical Office has limited hours for the remainder of the pandemic emergency, but the Church is still here to serve you. Someone is in the office from 10 to 10:30am. We answer phone calls from noon to 2pm. Staff access emails and urgent voicemails from 10am to 2pm.

NEW A weekly Saturday 5pm Mass (anticipated Sunday Observance) has been added to the schedule effective November 7th; please register to attend. The 5pm Sunday Mass is cancelled effective November 8th.

The office will close at noon on Wednesday 11 November for Remembrance Day.

Remembrance Day Mass, Wednesday 11 November, 11am. Please pray for veterans, and for peace. The Knights will be remembering their departed brothers at this Mass.

Throughout November, we pray for all departed souls. You can submit the name(s) of anyone you wish to remember by emailing reserve@stignatius.ca. Please clearly indicate in the subject line that it is for a deceased person. Names will be placed in the Remembrance Urn and those names will be prayed for during the month of November.

Development & Peace / Caritas Canada's education and action campaign

"Recovering Together" addresses the global crisis exacerbated by the COVID-19 pandemic. There will be a short talk about this campaign after all masses next weekend, 14 & 15 November. Then, on 21 & 22 November, a special collection will be taken up to support our sisters and brothers in the Global South who have been affected by the pandemic. Meanwhile, D&P would like to thank St Ignatius parishioners for their ongoing support.

MASSES at ST IGNATIUS

- placing your envelope in the new box at the back of the church if you have reserved a seat at Mass;
- dropping off your envelope in the new mailbox outside the Admin Office door;
- mailing in your weekly donation, including your SGG contribution, to 255 Stafford Street, Winnipeg, MB R3M 2X2;
