REFLECTION

O Sapientia

The first of 7 Reflections on the Great “O” Antiphons

*O Sapientia, quae ex ore Altissimi prodiisti, attingens a fine usque ad finem,
fortiter suaviterque disponens omnia:
veni ad docendum nos viam prudentiae.*

O Wisdom, coming forth from the mouth of the Most High, reaching from one end to the other mightily and sweetly ordering all things:
Come and teach us the way of prudence.

– Roman, Collected 8th Century AD

I cannot think unless I have been thought,
Nor can I speak unless I have been spoken;
I cannot teach except as I am taught,
Or break the bread except as I am broken.
O Mind behind the mind through which I seek,
O Light within the light by which I see,
O Word beneath the words with which I speak,
O founding, unfound Wisdom, finding me,
O sounding Song whose depth is sounding me,
O Memory of time, reminding me,
My Ground of Being, always grounding me,
My Maker’s bounding line, defining me:
Come, hidden Wisdom, come with all you bring,
Come to me now, disguised as everything.

– Rev Malcolm Guite, Chaplain, Girton College Cambridge,
