Ignatian Spirituality – Introductory sessions 3 Wednesdays: 4, 11, & 18 May, 7pm on Zoom, followed by 3 Wednesdays 21 & 28 September and 5 October, 7pm in person. The St Ignatius Ed Centre is sponsoring a series of sessions to lead one into aspects of Ignatian spiritual practices, to help one grow closer to the Lord in scriptural prayer and be attentive to where the Lord is acting in one’s daily life. If you’d like to consider the Spiritual Exercises in Daily Life for the fall, come to the introductory sessions in May, where we will cover attentive praying with the scriptures through Lectio Divina, the concepts of Consolation and Desolation, and the Daily Examen. For info, contact Liz Polakoff (lpolakoff@stignatius.ca); Johnston Smith (jsmith@stignatius.ca); or Parish office, 204-474-2351 or (office@stignatius.ca).

REFLECTION

Order of St Thomas

*But Thomas (who was called the Twin), one of the twelve, was not with them when Jesus came.
So the other disciples told him, "We have seen the Lord." But he said to them, "Unless I see the mark of the nails in his hands, and put my finger in the mark of the nails and my hand in his side, I will not believe." (John 20: 24-25)*

If we could just believe and oh we would if we could put our fingers in the nail marks hands in the spear-gashed side work our way into him up to our elbows and then a shoulder and a foot and climb into his woundedness completely peer through his eyes and see what it's like to walk this world resurrected and free from death's power to box you up with ribbon live in his accomplishments safe in his flesh inoculated from any future punctures and bleeding nuzzle up to his soothing heartbeat lullaby

But we won't get that, we won't even get belief we have only to walk the way of vulnerable love only to find him in every cut and broken bone only to surrender as we keenly gaze into our own open wounds and universal pain only to find resurrection there inside us

And in our disbelief we will praise in our mistrust we will worship in our fear we will follow
