REFLECTION

Little Stranger Cakes

*“Let me bring a little bread, that you may refresh yourselves, and after that you may pass on – since you have come to your servant.”
So they said, “Do as you have said.” And Abraham hastened into the tent to Sarah, and said, “Make ready quickly three measures of choice flour, knead it, and make cakes.” (Gen 18: 5-6)*

When making little cakes for surprise visitors as your obligatory hospitality, it is best not to kneed them too much pat and coat them with some olive oil and if you have it a dusting of crushed rosemary and fresh cracked pepper then throw them in the beehive oven and let them brown and crisp and rise slightly and then fall back like breathing get your wooden paddle and slide it under to fetch them put them on your pottery plate and serve hot with fresh salted cheese as the three guests at your table take a bite and chew and smile and you take the small one for yourself and listen to their Wayfarer’s tale right then you’ll know why numinous foreigners came your way tonight why their words sound like holy mysteries plucked from behind the stars when they leave you with their astonishing message and wander down the ancient road to some other hopeless souls like you who thought all that was left was decrepit aging and death, wash up go to bed, give thanks for obligations, wild strange angels, and every coming birth
