REFLECTION

A Prayer for Vocations

Father, we are your People, the work of your hands.

Grateful for the historic sacrifices of the Jesuits and other early missionaries who helped build our Church and our country, we pray for those whom you continue to call to serve the Church in Canada.

In your unfailing love, call forth from among us many more ordained priests and deacons, and also sisters, brothers, and lay ministers:
women and men who will dedicate their lives to building your Kingdom.

Inspire these, your servants, to respond to their vocations with generosity and courage;

grant them the vision to inspire your People to respond, in our turn, to the presence of your Spirit among us.

Faithful to the Gospel and the hope of Jesus Christ, may we then dry the tears of those who mourn, give hope to those in despair, and rejoice in your steadfast love – and so as a Church, announce glad tidings to the poor proclaim liberty to captives, set prisoners free, and help renew the face of the earth.
