Incarnating the Gospel in Every Time and Culture

Pentecost is the Jewish feast of harvest, 50 (pente in Greek) days after Passover, when the full blessings of God's rescue of the Hebrews from Egypt are gathered and celebrated. The Christian adaptation of this important liturgical feast reflects the same themes, as fulfilled in the death and resurrection of Jesus, which for us has become the new Passover and the decisive Exodus of all God's people – not just from historical slavery, but from sin and death. The gifts of the Holy Spirit poured out on the church are the new harvest, empowering disciples to sow the word of God throughout the whole world.... Today is [therefore] the birthday of the Church.... With the gift of the Spirit at Pentecost, the Church received the mission to incarnate the Gospel message in every time and culture. As Pope Francis wrote in The Joy of the Gospel, "In the diversity of peoples who experience the gift of God, each in accordance with its own culture, the Church expresses her genuine catholicity and shows forth the 'beauty of her varied face'." (116). Put most simply: to be catholic, the church must be diverse....

[Pentecost] is a staging area where we gather to be nourished and empowered before being sent forth to witness to the message of Jesus. Let us be filled with breath, fire and energy as we take the Spirit into our world.
– Celebration (excerpted/paraphrased)

PENTECOST

Today we feel the wind beneath our wings
Today the hidden fountain flows and plays
Today the church draws breath at last and sings
As every flame becomes a Tongue of praise.
This is the feast of fire, air, and water
Poured out and breathed and kindled into earth.
The earth herself awakens to her maker
And is translated out of death to birth.
The right words come today in their right order
And every word spells freedom and release
Today the gospel crosses every border
All tongues are loosened by the Prince of Peace
Today the lost are found in His translation.
Whose mother-tongue is Love, in every nation.
