1 st Reading	2 nd Reading	Gospel
1 Kings: 17: 10-16	Hebrews 9: 24-28	Mark 12: 38-44

The Widow and the Cross

Not a black spider with red hourglass on her back

Not a hairline peak on a combed-back forehead

Not a walk on the rooftop in wartime waiting

She, a woman intimate with grief's grip on her throat

She, a woman befriending fear like the neighbor's cat

She, a woman weak like candle smoke in men's windy ways

Jesus points his unmanicured finger her way, not theirs

Jesus extrapolates her silent penny to God, not their flapping bills and lips

Jesus notices her aloud, the mimetic gift of his own complete giving

Not with an Easter bun with sweet drizzled icing

Not a verb for getting to the other side of the street

Not an ornament for church or neck or ring.

Bridging Borders a presentation by Fr Mario Serrano: This Sunday, at 1:30p in the Ed Centre. Cookies and coffee will accompany the presentation.

Remembrance Day – 11 November

Canadians pause today in silence to remember those who died in war and to pray for the victims of aggression and inhumanity throughout the world. This is a day to pray for peace, to consider what we are doing – as individuals, as a community, and as a nation – to bring God's peace into the world. This is a day when a believing community should rededicate itself by prayer and action to the ideals Jesus gives us in the Beatitudes
