KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

meet 1st Monday each month at 7:30pm

Prayer: Mary, Queen of Peace

O Loving God, your Son, Jesus Christ, proclaimed Prince of Peace by prophets and angels, came into the world to do your will and leave us His Peace.

We turn, then, for intercession and example to his – and our – Blessed Mother Mary, the first person to be redeemed by Christ; we turn to her who is now proclaimed Queen of Peace.

Hear, Mary, the cry of pain rising from the victims of war and violence, from the nexus of disrespect for life that bathes the earth in blood. Collectively implicated as we all are, scarred as we are by doubts and fears for the destiny of our planet, dispel our sorrow and loneliness, vanquish the shadows of hatred, revenge, and guilt. Open our minds and hearts to forgiveness. Grant us the wisdom and humility to reflect your peace to the world.

Mother of mercy and of hope, obtain for the women and men of the Third Millennium the precious gift of peace in our hearts, harmony in our families, mutual respect in communities and reconciliation among the nations; peace above all for those regions where people fight and die every day;

Queen of Peace, pray for us that we may pursue what leads to peace for all humanity, that we may beat our swords into plowshares.

All Souls' Day, Saturday 2 November, Commemoration of all the Faithful Departed.

Throughout November, we pray for all departed souls. On sheets you'll find in the pews, write the name(s) of anyone you wish to remember. Names will be placed in the urn and prayed for.

Sunday 3 November at 2am, please remember to turn your clocks back one hour.

Sunday Evening Mass will be at 8pm starting 3 November. Thanks to all who attended the 8:30pm Mass and participated in the consultation of moving the mass to 8pm. 143 ballots were filled and 121 agreed to the proposal and 22 disagreed. There were some cogent reasons for some who disagreed – work schedules, etc.; also St Vital parish offers a Sunday 8pm Mass. After these five years with the current pattern, it may be time to review our entire Mass scheduling for the entire year.
