REFLECTION

All Christians must face the same three temptations Jesus did. These same demons are in all of us.

The First Temptation was to turn stones into bread. This is likely our need to be immediately impressive and effective, successful, relevant, and to make things happen right now. It is our natural desire to look good. The false self tells you what it immediately wants, but seldom knows what it really needs. You can be a very popular and successful person when you operate at this level, and you will easily think very well of yourself. That is why Jesus has to face that temptation first, to move us beyond what we want, to what we need. In refusing to be immediately relevant, to respond to people's immediate requests, Jesus says, Go deeper. What do you really desire? "It is not by bread alone that we live".

The Second Temptation is the need for control, importance, and power. The devil tells Jesus to bow down before the power systems of this world: "All of these I will give to you." Make these into your actual belief and security system. Jesus refuses to bow down before these little kingdoms, the corporations, the idols of militarism and materialism, race and nationality, and all imperialistic thinking. That's a very heavy judgment on all the security systems of this world. These will finally and inevitably demand your full allegiance, loyalty, and attention, but it will all feel like you "are just doing your job." Jesus saw through this one and said, "You must worship the Lord your God, and serve God alone."

The Third Temptation comes when Satan effectively tells Jesus to force God's hand. He takes Jesus up to the pinnacle of the Temple, symbolizing the top of the religious world, and says, "Throw yourself off and He'll catch you". It's the only time in the Bible where the devil quotes Scripture. This surely says that Holy words can be used for evil purposes. This third temptation is to assume you are saved, superior to others, the moral elite, with God and religion on your side – and to quote arguable Scriptures for your own purpose: being against God in the name of God.

When you can face these kinds of well-disguised demons, Satan doesn't have a chance.

Excerpted and adapted from Richard Rohr, Radical Grace: Daily Meditations as reproduced in the Blog of Danut Manastireanu, <https://danutm.wordpress.com/2012/03/26/richard-rohr-the-three-temptations-of-jesus/>

The order of the temptations has been adjusted here to accord with the order in today's Gospel (Luke 4: 1-13).

LENTEN FAST & ABSTINENCE, ALMSGIVING, and PENANCE

Latin Church Catholics are to observe fasting and abstinence during Lent under the terms of Canons 1249-1253 of the 1983 Code of Canon Law, and as decreed in 2006 by the Canadian Conference of Catholic Bishops.

- ABSTINENCE: Catholics aged 14+ are expected to abstain from meat on all Fridays of Lent¹ (and on Ash Wednesday). Eggs, fish, and plant-based substitutes don't count as meat.
- FASTING: Catholics aged 18-59 are expected to fast (taking at most one full meal and two small "snacks" that don't add up to a full meal) on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday – and where possible, on Holy Saturday. Drinks such as water or juice don't count as food, but liquids used as food – e.g., soups or smoothies – do count.
- When you have a medical condition or are pregnant, travelling, or under unusual stress, these requirements may be relaxed.

In addition to fasting and abstinence, giving alms or doing charitable work is expected.
